How to do simple charity work

Industry Charity Agents Giving share some simple ideas to fundraise, volunteer or organise an event to raise money for charity.

At Agents Giving we work with Estate and Letting Agents and suppliers across the UK to encourage, support and promote your fundraising activities.

So if you are thinking about doing something for charity, planning your next fundraising event or indeed have some ideas for supporting your local community then Agents Giving can help you.

We often get asked by agents "What can we do to help?" A really simple way to do a good deed for charity is to take part in one of our industry wide campaigns.

Collect up food items and donate to your local foodbank. This can be done anytime of the year and foodbanks are always in desperate need of supplies. Your office can act as a collection point in your local community, you pack the food up and deliver onto your foodbank. You could even volunteer to help sort in their warehouse or make tea for their clients. On 18th June this year Agents Giving Day will see agent's offices around the country collecting food items for the biggest food collection yet, why not join in? 2019 saw nearly 22,000 items of food collected by our industry and donated onto local foodbanks.

Or you could donate any unwanted warm coats to a homeless charity or local shelter who will be more than happy to take them off your hands. Get the whole office involved by bringing in their preloved coats and jackets, bag them up and donate on. Don't forget to take a photo of your collections to share on social media and tell us about your coat collection and chosen charity and we can share your great work.

You could also come along to one of our events this year, we have something for everyone:

- Love Mud Challenge
- Golf day
- Summer Ball
- Agents Giving Day – supporting local foodbanks.

These are all a great way to be part of an organized event and help raise money for charity.

If you would like to organize your own fundraising event then we can help with our grant fund which helps towards the set up costs of your fundraising event, so more of the money you raise goes to your chosen charity. We can share ideas on what to do and also help to promote it.

So what are you waiting for?
